Re-Entry Plan for School of Graduate Studies & Research and School of Diné Studies

The hooghan houses the School of Graduate Studies and Research, and the School of Diné Studies. Both Schools have developed the following sets of guidelines in the re-entry phase and plan for the University students, faculty, staff and the community members who enter the hooghan building in the coming academic year.

Requirement

There is a sign in podium at the front door where everyone has to sign in.
Everyone is to wear a face mask prior to entering the hooghan.
Social distancing 6 feet or more is required and expecting by all who are in the hooghan.
Rules and guidelines established by CDC, NM, Navajo Nation and NTU will be followed and monitored by the hooghan staff.

Protocols

Hand sanitizing pump is set up at the front door.
Hand washing with soap and hot water are available for the hooghan attendees in the restrooms.
Social distancing of 6 feet or more is required and necessary of everyone in the hooghan

Hooghan Clean Up

The custodian cleans up and does a wipe down of all the classroom tables, chairs, boards, monitors, and places on a scheduled time.

Hooghan classroom usage

The classroom, with a few students for Spring 2021, is set up with social distancing in mind. Students and faculty are to follow the safety protocols established by CDC, NM State, Navajo Nation and NTU.

Seating arranged is marked at 6 feet apart and attendees will be monitored to ensure the requirements are followed.

After usage of the hooghan for a meeting or class a wipe down of the heavy trafficked will be done.
